Directions

HMS Raleigh is approached by crossing the River Tamar bridge (toll) at Saltash, or via a chain ferry from Devonport, Plymouth.

Follow the A38 to Saltash Bridge and proceed for a further 8 miles to the roundabout at Trerulefoot. Take the first exit, A374, signposted to Torpoint; follow this road until you pass through the village of Antony. You will see the signs for HMS Raleigh on your right.

Alternatively take the ferry from Devonport, which involves a drive through Plymouth which can mean a long wait in the rush hour. The ferries run a 10-15 minute service throughout the day, with only one ferry operating between 21:30 and 06:00. This departs Devonport at 15 and 45 minutes past the hour and at Torpoint every hour and half-hour. At the ferry lanes in Devonport, Plymouth, traffic lights indicate when it is your turn to proceed. Drive on to the ferry and disembark at Torpoint, following the map to HMS Raleigh. The bridge route is 15 miles longer, but generally there are fewer hold-ups
